Greetings,

It is our pleasure to invite you to participate in The International Log Builders' Association, 35th Annual General Meeting, Conference, and Trade Show, April 3,4,5, and 6th at the Grouse Mountain Lodge in Whitefish Montana. The ILBA membership represents the finest in handcrafted log construction, timber framers, designers, and suppliers from around the globe. Your sponsorship and attendance will be an excellent opportunity for you to showcase your products and services to many of the best craftsman, in their respective fields, in the world. Your participation is vital to making this an unforgettable experience.

Log home building is a huge growth industry. Buyers are seeking the most superior quality – in building products, meeting Green standards, and in the latest technologies to improve quality of life within their homes. Our conference allows its members to see cutting edge technology, innovative products, improved safety procedures, and meet with you, the best suppliers to our industry.

We are proud of the role the ILBA continues to play in setting building codes & standards, maintaining strong liaisons with Industry, government, research authorities, and the general public, as well as providing valuable educational services to our members and opportunities for our sponsors. We know that with the continuing support of companies like yours we will continue to meet this mandate. In preparation for this conference we listen carefully to our members and our workshops, seminars and “Tech Talk” reflect the subjects that are of keen interest.

Your sponsorship is greatly appreciated. Choose from one of the enclosed sponsorship levels and register for the upcoming conference and Trade Show. Please notice there are several new options. Our annual auction is another way to showcase your products and promote your organization as well as offset some or all of your sponsorship fees. Just complete the attached registration and auction form and return to our office, ensuring your name is prominent at this year's conference and auction. The ILBA, a non-profit organization since 1974, relies on your support and participation.

This year's conference theme, “Handmade for Generations” is an excellent opportunity for you to showcase your products and promote their use to some of the worlds' best handcrafted log builders. Our aim is to work with you in educating our members on the benefits of your products and assisting you in building long lasting relationships.

Please join us for a prosperous and fun filled weekend in beautiful Whitefish, Montana. This is your chance to share the stage with leaders in the industry. Space is limited, so contact our office and reserve your space now. We look forward to meeting you. See you there!

Sincerely,
